On December 20, 2017, the defendant was originally sentenced to 60 months custody followed by 48 months supervised release. While in custody, the defendant experienced health issues. The Bureau of Prisons recommended a compassionate release to return home and have her family assist her with her health issues.

On October 16, 2019, the defendant commenced her 48-month term of supervised release. The defendant shared with United States Probation that she was suffering from severe health issues. On February 18, 2020, the defendant's family informed United States Probation the defendant had passed away on February 12, 2020 related to her health issues. Confirmation of the defendant's passing was confirmed by a copy of the defendant's death certificate.
